Dear Mr. McLeod,

I completed NEVER AGAIN! in late 1992. It could easily have been published before the middle of 1993. When after many inquiries I was told when it would be published, I was told it would be published this past September. When that did not happen I was told this coming March. When they did not have that announced and it was not on the computer I wrote and asked and after quite a few week have had no response. So I just do not know and at my age and in the state of my health there is nothing I can do about it. I'm quite sorry.

Thanks for your card and good wishes,

sincerely,

Harold Weisberg
